AT HOME AND ABROAD.

Wm. C. Tobey better known as "John of York" died in Harrisburg, on Wednesday 2nd inst.

We will lay before our readers, next week the second address of the Democratic State Central Committee.

Hon. Augustus Drum has received a re-nomination to Congress, from the district composed of Westmoreland, Indiana and Armstrong. The Democratic State Central Committee is to meet at the Merchant's Hotel, in Philadelphia, on the 17th inst.

The sale of the property of Chas. Litzinger, deceased, will take place on the 28th inst., instead of the 20th as advertised in our paper of last week.

COMMITTED.-Mr. John Harshberger, of Robbery.—Wm. Lloyd Esq., one of the firm of Jack & Co, was robbed at Altoona yesterday of one hundred and fifty dollars.

63-NORTH CAROLINA ELECTION.—The returns of the elections in the Old North State is pretty nearly ascertained, which goes to show conclusively that the Democracy have elected their Governor, and in all probability both branches of the Legislature.

DENTISTRY .- Dr. B. M. Gildea, according to previous announcement by handbills, has arrived and ready to perform all operations in his line, to the entire satisfaction of all who may favor him with their custom. The Dr. can be consulted at the residence of Mr. Frederick Kittell, a few doors above the office of the Democrat & Sentinel.

63-U. S. DEMOCRATIC REVIEW .- We are in receipt of the 3d number of this excellent work, with the following table of contents, viz: Abolition and Sectarian Mobs, Drop the curtain, the Missouri Prohibition, Ode to America, on Festus, Lunacy, Unfortunates; Ma Normandie, Sydney Smith, Weariepen, the Poets and Poetry of Ancient Greece.—Published by Lloyd and Brainard, 80 Nassau street, N. Y., at $5 per annum.

We have been favored with a copy of the beautiful address delivered by Gov. Bigler, on the 26th of June last, before the Harrisburg Female

We have also received a copy of the catalogue

Mrs. Anna le Conte, Principal—assisted by Misses Hannah B. Bradley, Mary Jane Partch, and others. The branches taught are English, German, French and Italian, with Vocal and instrumental music.

GETTING SMART.—A few individuals in this place, put themselves to the trouble oftacking (weatherboarded), situate in Washington Townup small pieces of paper in different places about | ship, on the south side of the Turnpike Road, near the borough limits, with the letters P. O. V. writ- where the Pennsylvania Rail Road crosses the ten on them, with the intention, as they thought, same, containing in front of said Turnpike eighteen of creating an excitement. But it did'nt take. feet, and in depth eighty five feet, and the lot or We will admit there are a few Would-Be-Know-Nothings here, merely for the sake of being talked | building. about. We believe, we can safely say there are not ten citizens of our town could join the order perty of R. M. S. Jackson, at the suit of John of Know Nothings, as they are all either foreigners Stewart.

GRAHAM'S MAGAZINE.-The August number of this excellent monthly has been received, and we can safely say, is not any behind its predecessors-it is well freighted with choice and whole some reading matter. The beautiful steel engravings are alone worth the subscription price. Should any of our readers wish to subscribe for Graham, they can be accomodated by calling on Mr. John Rodgers, who is in receipt of all the late | CLASS D-TO BE DRAWN THE 19th OF MR.CHAS. ALBRIGHT Esq., of this place, who is at presentengaged as an agent of the "Union Emigrant Society," writes from Washington city that he expects to start from Pittsburg for Kansas on the 1st of September with a company of emigrants. We understand that a number from this place intend to migrate with him.

SKELETON FOUND .- The exceleton of a man was discovered near the Old Tunnel, on the Allegheny Portage Rail Road. It had the appearance of having lain there for a number of years, The Johnstown Echo says,—"There are suspicions about who the person has been and the means by which he met his death.

THE LAW MUST BE OBEYED. We were handed the following advertisement with a request, that we would give it publicity. It appears that the gentleman, whose name is attached to it, came to town on Tuesday, on horseback, and after having his horse carefully disposed of took a stroll through our streets, evidently with the intention of "seeing the sights" of this delightful inland city. In the meantime the Deputy Sheriff of the County, having in his possession a small Fieri Facias to him directed, ordered him to levy upon the goods and chattels of our indignant advertiser, (who had been so unfortunate as to become indebted to a neighbor to the extent of about five and thirty dollars,) and desirous of avoiding a visit to the home of the good natured gentleman, took forcible possession of his horse in the name and by the authority of the Commonwealth, and placed him under lock and key in a stable, whereupon the Doctor considered himself greatly aggrieved, and was loud in his exclamation for "a horse, a horse," and would gladly have given his kingdom to have obtained re-possession of his steed. Being unable to do so, unless pre-viously furnishing "the means" wherewith to remove the indebtedness, and failing to obtain bail, he remained in a state of abject sorrow and grief of heart until this morning, when slowly and sadly he wended his way homeward, not however without leaving the following morceau for publieation, and venting loud and deep improcations on Ebensburg and its inhabitants.

PRO ORBE ET URBE.

The Undersigned, Jos. Eberstall, eame to visit his patients in Ebensburg, on Tuesday last. on horseback, when some of the citizens took him, the horse, for the reason that the owner has to pay a little debt.

This cause of "honest citizens" giving to the public, I inform my friends, that nobody may come on horseback to Ebensburg, who has to pay a debt in this horse-catching town.
